BEACON 1986

An aerial line drawing of the Westminster Christian School campus. It shows several long, rectangular buildings with gabled roofs, likely classrooms. There are also smaller, more complex buildings, possibly administrative or specialized facilities. The campus is surrounded by a fence, with palm trees and other vegetation scattered throughout. A road or driveway runs along the bottom left. A compass rose in the bottom left corner indicates North (N) and East (E).

Westminster Christian School celebrates its twenty-fifth birthday this year. On September 6, 1961, the first classes were held in the Educational Building of Shanandoah Presbyterian Church. By 1962, the enrollment went from 40 students to 160 students and the school was named Cutler Cove School. Later, when the school's population grew to 1,000 in 1971, the senior and junior high buildings were constructed. This is how it all began and the tradition continues . . .

Living Today

Movies, fashion, fads. They're all a part of a student's lifestyle. Academics aren't the only thing to tie up a student's hours. Soaking up the sun, shopping at the mall, and water skiing are the current happenings.

▲ What a beautiful day in the neighborhood ...

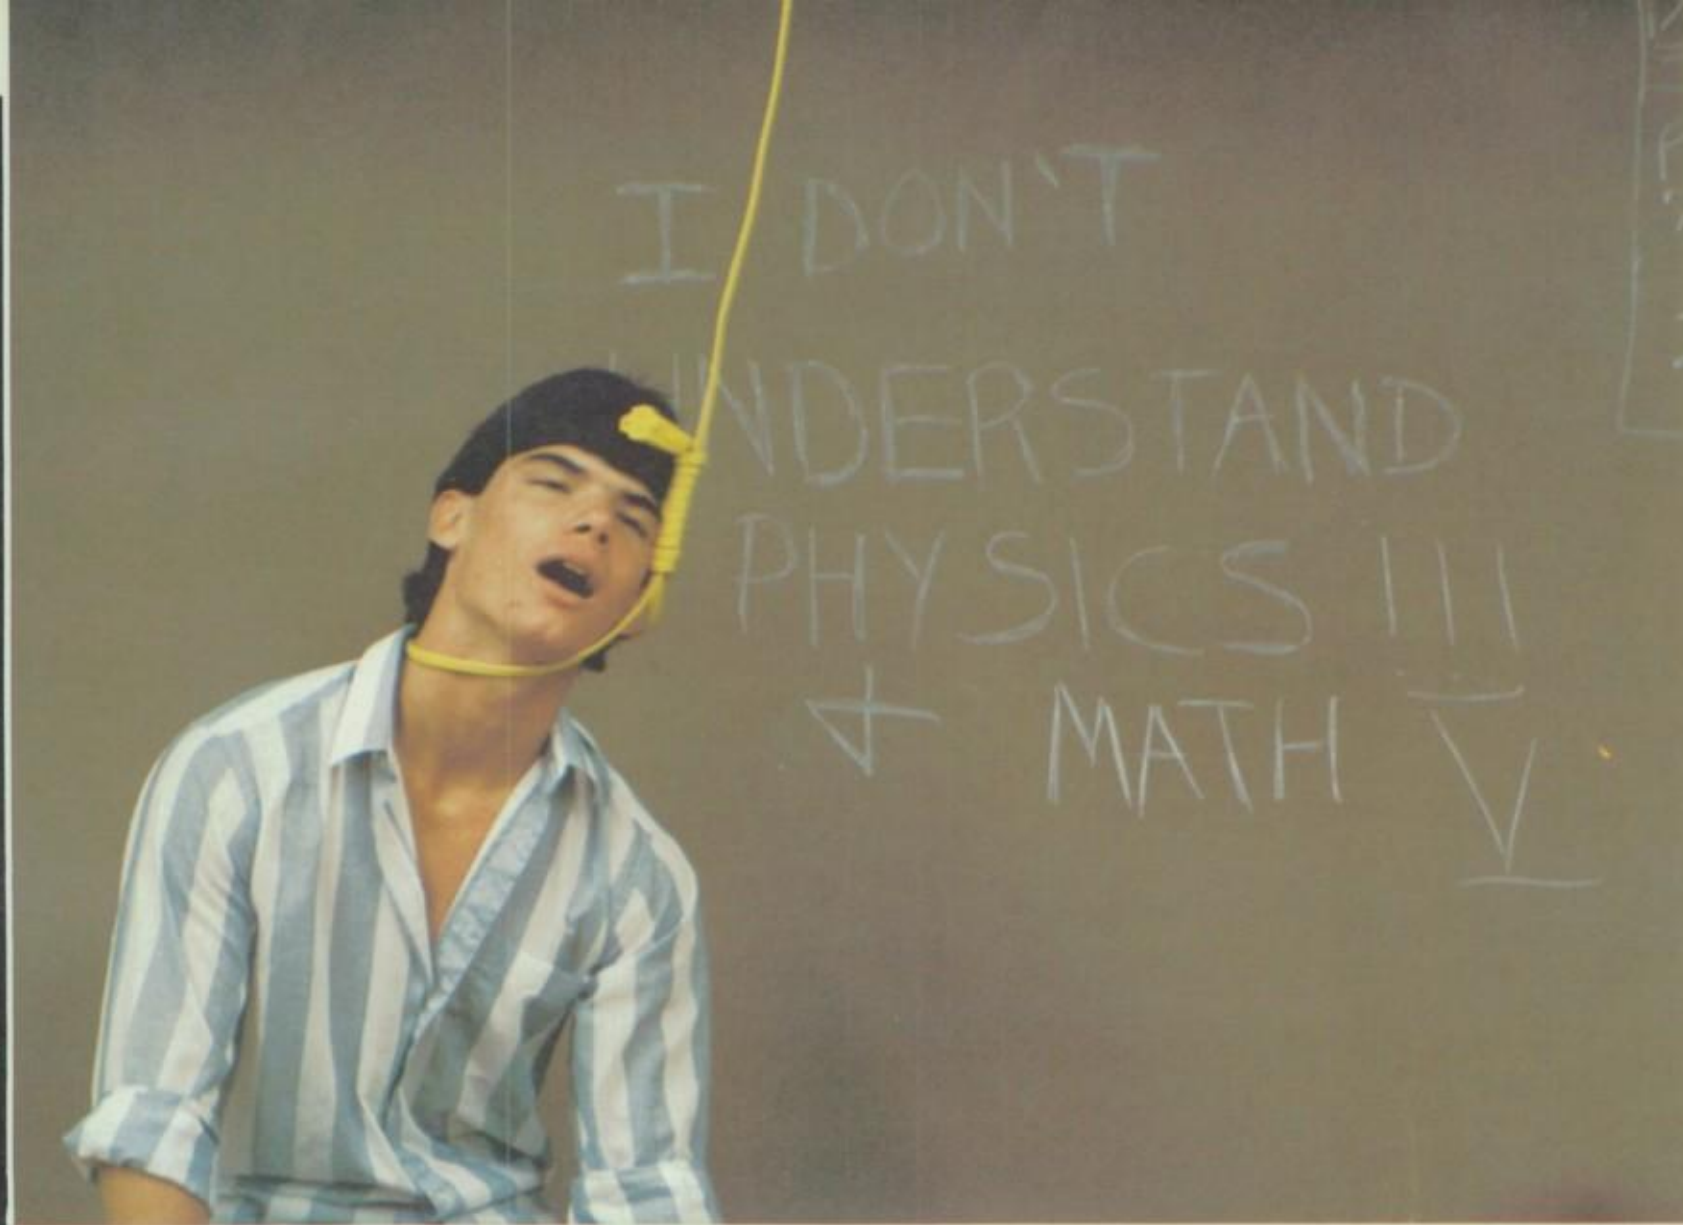

▲ The sophomores try hard to show their enthusiasm.

▲ I started at the bottom and I like it there — President Kerr

◀ Early senioritis hits hard.

▼ Love those teacher student relationships.

▲ Me Tarzan, she Jane.

◀ Are we having fun yet?

Current Events

Change has brought about a lot of new items at Westminster this year. The new service clubs Koininia and the Key Club are working very hard to shower our community with the love of Jesus Christ. In addition, new faces of teachers and students can be seen roaming through the halls. The Westminster of today is surely quite different from Cutler Cove of yesterday.

The Way We Were

► Mr. Adams about to be eaten by Elvis.

▲ What do you mean you can't find the keyboard?

Remember when bell bottoms were in? We don't either; that was before our time. Think back to the way things used to be. Change seems to be sneaking up on us. Pep rallies were held for fun rather than as an excuse to get out of class. What about the track around the football field and the library? Those "necessities" weren't existent before. Who could forget those teachers decked out in patent leather shoes, wide collars, and big dotted ties?

Those days have been replaced by these times of mohawks, madness, and mayhem.

▲ When we were in Junior High.

▲ Consistency is a virtue.

▲ From arithmetic to computers

▲ Mustache yesteryear, Mohawk today.

▲ What do you mean God promised no more rain?

▲ Things sure have changed.

Mrs. Jones holds down the fort.

Back to the Future

The Future. An ever present mystery that seems to intrigue us all. Perhaps that's why Back to the Future was one of this year's biggest hits. Will the future really be filled with fluxcapacitors and jiggiwatts of energy? No one knows for sure. That's part of the future that makes horoscopes and other predictions so amusing even to the biggest skeptic. What will happen to Westminster and its students is hazy, but from the changes Westminster has been through in the past 25 years, it's evident the years ahead will definitely be exciting.

Chapel

Jackie Levermore contributes to our worship.

Mr. Adams addresses the student body during orientation.

The crowd looks on expectantly.

"Try and imagine that this is no longer an auditorium, but that you are now entering the Holy of Holies. Even though there is no steeple on top of this building, this is where we come to worship the Lord."

Drama class shows us a typical day at Westminster cafeteria.

Mr. Rich Kern returns once again to show us his latest movie.

Suzette Bell shares her musical talent in chapel.

It is Tuesday morning and the bell rings:

"Oh no, I'm suppose to be in first period, not homeroom — it's Chapel day!" This was the response by someone through most of the year as they ran quickly to their class.

Chapel was a real mix this year from movies to speakers, to weightlifting, to live music performed by groups and Westminster's own talented singers.

Tuesday mornings were not always looked forward to by Westminster's students, but hopefully someone heard. Heard that Gospel message that has eternal value for the soul — Jesus Christ died on the cross for "you" — for "your sins" and He loves you. If this was accomplished for even one this year it was worth it.

Spiritual Emphasis

Mr. Andy McDaniels talks to the students and answers their questions on sexual relationships.

Mr. Jim Laub speaks to the students on the importance of a good family relationship.

The crowd hushes as Spiritual Emphasis Week is about to begin.

Student Council President Drew Dixon opens up Spiritual Emphasis Week as he introduces the first speaker.

Relationships

This year's Spiritual Emphasis Week, put on by the Student Council, was a huge success. The week was geared toward getting the students more involved in prayer and fellowship. The week's speakers were from Campus Life Ministries, and they spoke on various themes all having to do with the main theme, "Relationships." Chapel was held every day, and students even held a Prayer Breakfast at the end of the Week.

Mr. Marty Warren talks to the students about having a good relationship with Jesus Christ.

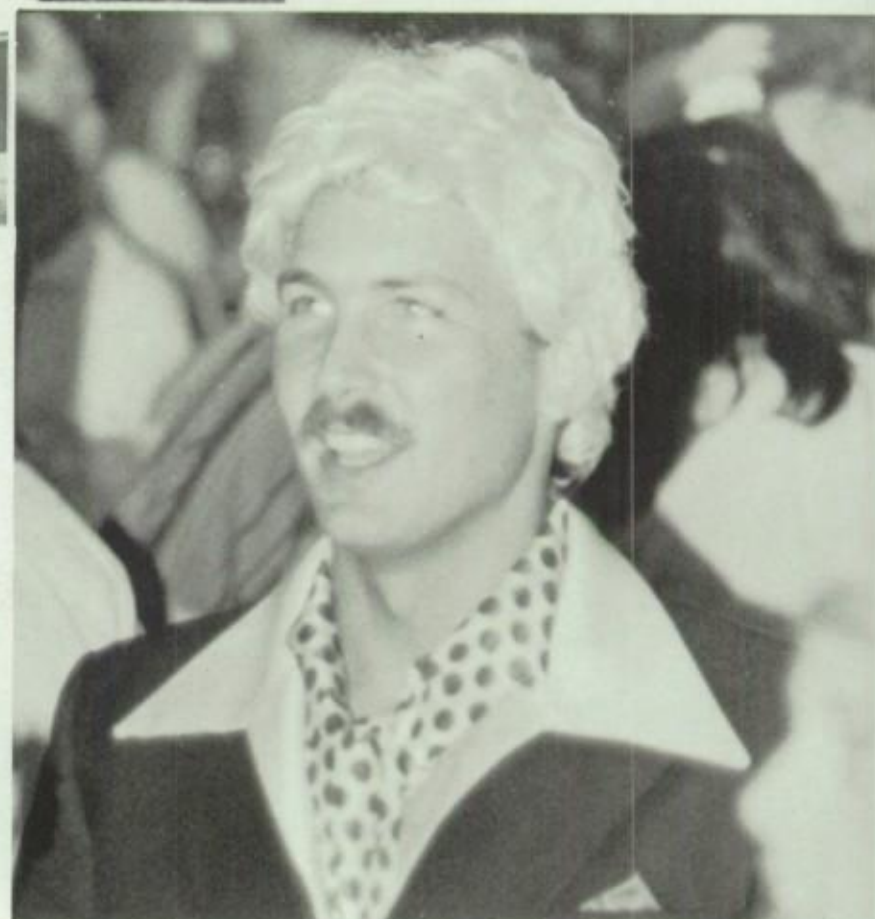

Gigi and Lilibeth eagerly await the start of the music.

Students break up in small groups at the Prayer Breakfast to pray about school and community needs.

Pan Phile Variety Show

Students Go . . .

During the Christmas holidays, two major events took place. The first was an annual visit to the Migrant camp. The kids showed up in their best, if not only, Christmas clothes. Although their riches couldn't be carried in their pockets, the wealth of love shown on their faces when Santa gave out the gifts was overwhelming. On the other end of town, students from Westminster were recuperating from a night of Christmas celebrations. Although a few unlucky people literally "missed the boat," the rest of us got a chance to flash our best at the first annual Christmas Cruise down the Intercoastal Waterway.

“Senioritis”

The senior class of 1986 is small, yet plentiful in Character. Despite its size, our class has always produced many colorful personalities. Over the past two years we have become more and more united and, although we did not win the “spirit” contest, we know that SENIORS RULE and always will. It will be hard for us to leave our friends and Westminster but it looks like it’s that time . . . time to move on.

This year was one of the best for the class of '87. Mr. and Mrs. Bettenga, Mr. Gilchrist, and Mrs. Peterson served as class sponsors. They were the ones who helped motivate the junior class, and we owe them many thanks. The junior officers for the '85-'86 school year pulled out the sponsors' ideas and brought them into reality.

This truly was an "awesome" year for the junior class. They reigned supreme in the spirit contest, hosted the Christmas cruise, and completed many other accomplishments. The juniors should stand up and give themselves a hand for a job well done.

The enthusiasm of this year's seventh grade class is seen through all they do and say. The effort and energy the students put into Olympic Day and other Junior High activities clearly shows their dedication. The class of 1991 will certainly leave its mark on Westminster in the years to come.

Band

This year's Band was definitely a challenge to the new director Mr. Markel. Although only six people were brave enough to stay in the group, the small size and dedication of the members brought incredible results. At this year's Christmas Concert many members of the band were in the spotlight as they played beautiful solos. The band also put on great performances at The Music Association Meeting and the Spring Concert. The future certainly looks bright for this inspired group of musicians.

When I was appointed Editor of this year's Yearbook, I didn't have the slightest clue as to all the work this job entailed. The endless hours after school and at home, trying to put together a book alive with memories of the year. This year's staff was plagued with inexperience, but with the help of returning staff members such as Jeff Parker, Missy Fowler, Lindaco Grant, and Melissa DeJong, we managed to get things together. This year's staff also benefited from a new leader, Miss Stegall. Under her leadership and with a few pointers from Mrs. DeJong, the staff managed to beat the deadlines (well some of them anyway), and produce a book we can all be proud of.

F.C.A. or Fellowship Of Christian Athletes is a club that meets once a month at various homes for fellowship, Bible study and refreshments. Coach Hofman and Coach Van Dyke usually lead the discussions. However, much input is given by the athletes themselves concerning the various issues. Topics include the Christian in competition, winning vs. losing, honoring God through sports, and so on. F.C.A. involvement is quite popular with the athletes.

Warriors Start 7-0, but Injuries Tarnish District Crown

Battered, bruised but not beaten sums up the 1985 Warrior football team. This year the team set a new school record of seven consecutive victories. In their path of destruction were the various regular opponents plus two giants, a 3A Private school and a 4A Public School. All these teams were devastated by the Warriors' offensive game and stopped cold by the Warriors' defense.

Fate dealt the final blow, however, in the form of injuries and sickness. Before long the team had diminished and the players found themselves struggling in each game. The coaches had trouble filling positions due to illness, and as a result the team lost two games. But not to be outdone, a beaten and battered Warrior team pushed with its last breath to give a final fight that left the opponents in fear and pain. Every able bodied Warrior took the field and gave their best effort. This proved to everyone that winning is fun, but playing as a team is what counts.

Congratulations and thanks are due to the 12 Seniors who carried out the tradition and led the Warriors through the easy and tough times. This awesome force consisted of Tom Baldwin, Tim Brigham, Shawn Brooker, Rob Hudson, Matt Lomenick, Greg Mucerino, Jim McNutt, Scott Mullin, Ricky Moore, Ashley Ogden, Eric Vanderlaan, and Danny Warner.

The year's highlights include a 39-38 victory over Bishop Verot in which Bill Henderson broke the state record in yards passing with 464 yards. There was also the shut-out of the 4A school, Cypress Lakes (30-0).

Goodbye Warriors; you will be gone but not forgotten.

Swimming

The girl's swim team this year finished very strongly with a season record of 6-2. With strong performances by The Miami Herald's First Team members Monique Van Nood and Jeannine Waldron and Second Team members Kashia Orlando and Michelle Morris, the team had a great year. This year's Most Valuable Swimmer award went to Monique Van Nood, with Jeannine Waldron receiving the Coach's Award and Martha Argibay receiving the Most Improved Award. The new coach, Mr. Tim Bean summed up the season by saying, "It was quite a wonderful experience to watch the team grow physically and spiritually."

The boy's team finished up with a record of 1-7. Chip Wahl received both the Most Valuable Swimmer award and the Coach's award, while Chris Groom received the award for the Most Improved. Coach Tim Bean felt the team was, "very young but never did they lose faith."

Although this year's Volleyball team had no seniors, they had a winning season of 29-7. Included in this record are conference and district titles, as well as a regional victory. Because of the team's vitality and experience, Miss Lambdin is looking forward to another victorious season and perhaps a State title.

Amy Bronson pulls the rebound down while her team-mates wait for the outlet pass.

"Hey Coach, do we have to run the mile today? I'm really tired and when we run the mile I don't practice as well — under 9 today! NO WAY!"

"Coach, we had to jump the fence. They locked it, can you believe that? What a pain! What do you mean we have to pump 70 pounds from the bench? Why do we do this anyway? If we can't hit the basket what difference does it make how in shape we are?"

Conditioning was a big part of Girls Basketball this year and it contributed greatly to the season record of 16 and 4 with only one conference game loss, which was to Gulliver by 1 point. One of the highlights of the season was a victory over Gulliver in Gulliver's gym. It was early in the season and the girls were really pumped for the game. They really wanted it and they went for it, knowing they had to stop Gulliver's Sr., Amy Butz, offensively — and they did, for a 3 point victory.

This same determination and team effort was seen throughout the season despite setbacks of sickness and injury. Was the hard work and pain all for nothing? We will always have fond memories of the 1985-86 Girls Basketball season.

"Growing Pains!" This was a rebuilding season for the J.V. Basketball team. After last year's 19 and 1 record, the J.V. fell to a 5 and 18 record with no starters returning from last year. Some of the outstanding players for the team were: Doug Medler, George "The Horse" Sprinkle, Brian Boothe, John McNicoll, and Joe "Smo" Snyder.

At the start of the season the team was led by "The Horse" in the point guard position and by the end "The Chef" had moved in to take over. The team's fearless Coach, Bill Charlton, encouraged the team during half-time with very "uplifting" talks. Next year promises to be a better year.

Season Summary:

Though plagued with ineligibilities, injuries and inconsistency, the 1985-86 soccer team still managed a 9 and 12 season. Highlights such as Key West and Orlando aged Coach Bettenga about ten years. Even so, he was still our biggest source of inspiration. Our most convincing victory was a 10-1 blowout of Orlando Eustis. All Conference selections this year were Ken VanNess, Todd Jackson and Carter Edwards.

Dear Students,
At the beginning of the school year I shared with you a passage from Colossians 1:9-14 that summarized four prayer goals for the 1985-86 school year. Those goals were:

- (1) "to fill you with the knowledge of His will," that each of you might seek to obediently do God's will in all things.
- (2) "that you may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please Him in every way," that each of you may become a proper role model for your peers and to bear good fruit for God.
- (3) "that you be strengthened with all power according to His glorious might," that you might realize and utilize the power of God in your lives on a daily basis and
- (4) "to give thanks to the Father in all things," that your lives might reflect a spirit of thanksgiving to the God who so freely has given you all things.

As you and I look back on this year's activities perhaps we can reflect on how far we have gotten with regard to accomplishing these goals. May God be praised for a wonderful school year.

In His Service,

Gary B. Adams

Jr. High Principal

The junior high years are a happy time for most youngsters. There are special needs during this time of development — the need to mature in the aspect of independence as well as maturity in appropriate dependence.

From time to time, they must be given the freedom to choose and to receive praise when they decide correctly coupled with love and acceptance when their decision is not the wisest.

James 1:5 teaches: "If any one of you lacks wisdom, he should ask God who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to him."

These are years of establishing patterns in all aspects of the student's life. Ephesians 5 sets a perfect model by admonishing us to live a life of love — just as Christ loved us.

Miss DeRuiter graduated from WCS in 1974. In that time she has seen many changes. There has always been a dress code, but there have been some changes. She recalls, "Teachers used to walk around with rulers all the time to make sure skirts were only six inches from the top of the knee."

The physical campus has definitely improved with the additions of a cafeteria, library, auditorium, and most importantly a gym.

When asked about her favorite subject, Miss DeRuiter's unsurprising answer was "P.E." She was the M.V.P. in three sports and was named "Most Athletic" in her senior year. Her other favorite subjects were Bible, psychology, and physiology.

Most of our homecoming activities have been traditional since her high school days, but Powder Puff was first played when she was a senior.

There has always been a Spiritual Emphasis Week, but when the school was smaller the students were able to stay overnight in the classrooms after a big bonfire in the woods.

When Miss DeRuiter graduated she never dreamed she would return. But she's back and is enjoying being a part of WCS.

Close-Up

The "Close Up" program is a different approach to education. It was a week long program that included seminars and different workshops with other high school students our age. Many friends were made, and we learned about the cities they were from and the different lifestyles they led. We also were able to roam around the Capitol and do our own sight-seeing. Visits to Congress and committee meetings were made.

An awe inspired group.

Future aspirations Mr. Gilchrist?

Our Westminster politicians, Roni Lacuesta, Ana Aguilera, Amy Carrier, Steve Concepcion and Mr. Stephen Gilchrist, met people from all over the country.

The fashions of colder weather.

Steve drops to relax at the first chance he gets.

congratulations senior

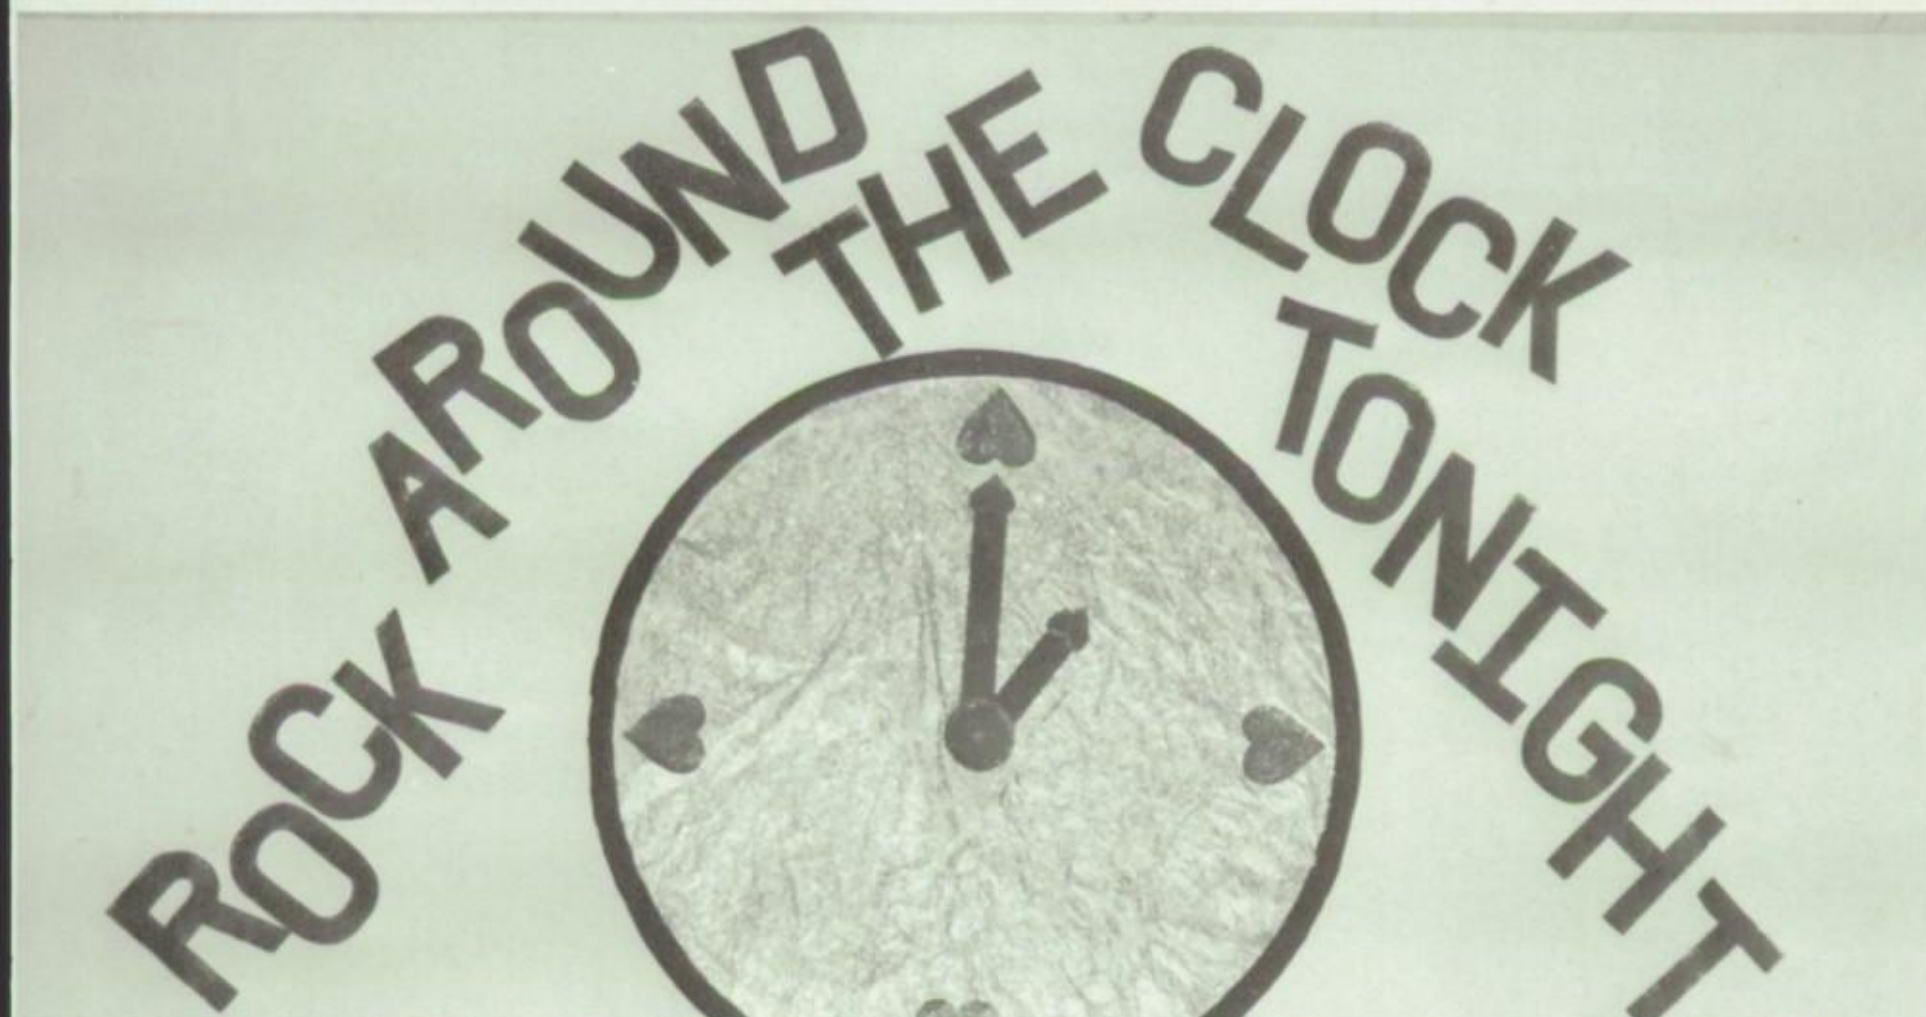

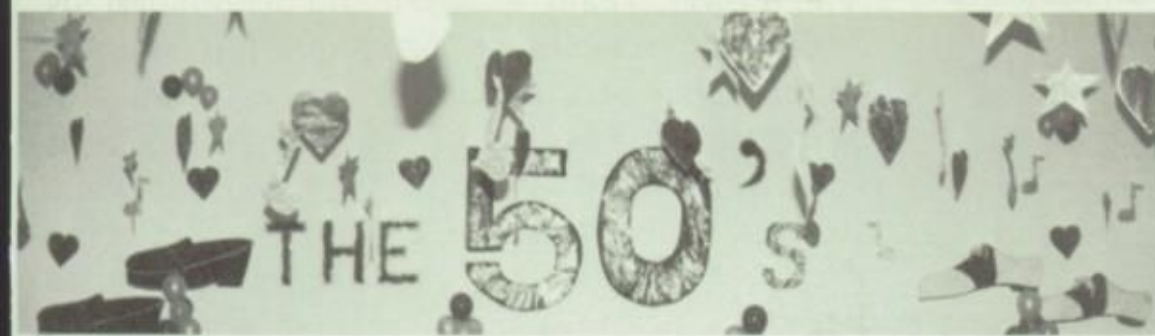

The Power Team amazed and astounded us with their muscles and strength this year in chapel. They performed such acts as blowing up and popping a hot water bottle, smashing concrete blocks, and laying on a bed of nails while being smashed with a sledgehammer. One of the members even held a steel bar over his head with Mrs. Bettenga and Carmen Willey on each end. Then he proceeded to bend the bar between his teeth. Although they performed fantastic feats, their Central message was that nothing can be done without the strength of Jesus Christ.

Pet Pages

Fluffy, fierce, flashy, or just plain friendly, Man's best friends are always there when you need them. This year we decided to show off all our lovable felines and canines by giving them their own special page. Many times pets often resemble their owners or vice versa. Can you guess who these pets belong to?

Memories in Motion

The yearbook staff this year picked this theme because it seemed to fit every aspect of Westminster Christian School. The good times, the crazy times, the lazy times, the exciting times, and even the hard times; we tried to roll them all into one book. The staff this year tried exceptionally hard to make this book something we can all look back on and smile. We tried to include all the big events, inside and outside of school. These are the times we'll never forget . . . dancing till we wanted to drop, winning that all important game, finally getting an A on a difficult test, spending a lazy day on the beach, and even screaming fanatically for four straight hours while the Boss entertained us. It almost seemed like it would never end . . .

Now, however, it's time for us to head into summer to fill up some more memory pages. After a few months of soaking up the rays many of us will return to WCS in the fall for the 1987 school year. Others will be leaving to go to other schools or off to college. One thing we all have in common, however, is that lots of new memories are waiting to fill our hearts and minds.
